

Biography

Timothy Fellow | Principal

Timothy Fellow founded Easton Walker LLC in 2012 and presently serves as managing member and principal of the firm.

Tim began his wealth management career at Smith Barney as a financial advisor, directing his planning practice to meet the singular requirements of entertainment and creative arts professionals. Moving to Wells Fargo Investments, Tim joined the trading division supporting execution and financial plan implementation for full-service and self-directed clients. He advanced to Wells Fargo Private Bank as a client service consultant, working directly with high-net-worth clients—and their advisors—ensuring seamless integration between investment and banking services. Prior to founding Easton Walker, Tim led a team of investment representatives apart of Wells Fargo Advisors and First Clearing.

Actively involved in the community, Tim proffers time and expertise to organizations that foster self-reliance as a means to eliminate poverty, sustain the arts and protect the environment.

Tim worked in the music field as a finance director, producer, business manager, and performer in nationally recognized organizations, groups and ensembles. He holds a BA in Music from Brigham Young University.

The following certifications and designations evidence Tim's tireless commitment to depth of knowledge, qualitative technical development and excellence in breadth of service:
